

Sample Permission Slip: Your students must always have completed permission slips to participate in away games.

Dear Parent or Guardian,

Your child _____ wishes to participate in the National Academic League for the 2009-2010 season. The NAL is a great way for students to gain knowledge beyond the classroom and to demonstrate what they have learned by playing against other Baltimore City public schools. Our school's NAL team will practice _____. All games are played at 3:30 (dates below). Certain games will be played at other Baltimore City public schools so I am requesting that you sign below in the appropriate space granting your child permission to ride the bus to/from these away games. When traveling to away games, students will be leave school at approximately 2:30pm and return at approximately 5:30pm.

I encourage you to attend any/all games to cheer on the students.
